

Retired City Librarian Is Honored at Reception

Some 200 residents, city and county officials and out-of-town guests attended a reception Jan. 12 in honor of Miss Louise Crawford, who retired Jan. 1 as executive secretary of the executive board of the Hancock County Library.

Miss Crawford, one of the most beloved citizens of Bay St. Louis, founded the library 25 years ago in two rent-free rooms above the Hancock Bank. Her only salary was $12 in donations. At present, books fill the six-room library on Court St. and include 11,000 collections, a number of rare volumes and a wide variety of books for children. For the occasion, which also marked Miss Crawford's birthday, the library was decorated with arrangements of yellow chrysanthemums in keeping with the green and yellow color scheme.

Receiving with Miss Crawford were Mrs. James M. Robert, president of the board; Mrs. Katherine Wilson, librarian, and Miss Mary Isom, assistant to Mrs. Wilson.

Mrs. Owen Crawford and Mrs.

Nina Stillwell were in charge of the guest register.

Tea and coffee were served from a beautifully appointed table in the enclosed porch in the rear of the library. A pale green linen cloth covered the table which held a centerpiece of bright yellow King Alfred daffodils, gladioli and chrysanthemums interspersed with Bells of Ireland. Tall three-branched silver candelabra holding lighted green tapers flanked the centerpiece. At either end were silver coffee and tea services and other appointments were of silver.

On a smaller table covered with a white imported linen cloth was a large book-shaped cake frosted in green and yellow. Marking the open book was a green satin bookmark.

Past presidents of the board poured tea and coffee. They included Mrs. Lillian Marshall of New Orleans and Mesdames E. C. Samuel, Lucien Cox, Rene de Montuzin and Elizabeth Weston. Mesdames Lloyd Griffith, Sam Whitfield, Russell Elliott, Paul White, R. A. Steinmayer and Paul Kimbrell, board members, assisted in serving.

Members of the executive board presented a handsome gold wrist watch to Miss Crawford in appreciation for her many years of devoted service. She also received an array of gifts from friends.

When asked about her future plans, Miss Crawford said that she definitely planned to live here and just "be lazy."

BIG CAT—This 14-pound wildcat was shot by John Mollere (right) of Dunbar Ave. while rabbit hunting Sunday with James Kimmel at Devil's Swamp, Pine Island, between Highway 43 and US-90. The cat, a female about two years old, is inspected by veteran hunter Joseph Di Benedetto and State Game Warden Randolph Bourgeois. Mr. Mollere said he saw his hound and Mr. Kimmel's three hounds barking at a tree. He looked up to find the cat, which hunched her shoulders as if to spring. The dogs had chased her into the tree. Mr. Mollere said several turkey feathers he had found in the area had made him suspect the presence of a wildcat. This is the third wildcat he has shot, he said.

Strategy Talks Set Friday Night By Commuters

Final preparation for Tuesday's protest hearing against proposed discontinuance of Louisville and Nashville Railroad commuter trains Nos. 9 and 12 will be a meeting at 8 p.m. Friday in City Hall, City Commissioner J. Cyril Glover said today.

The public session will be an opportunity for all interested commuters, merchants, government officials and citizens to decide just what must be said at Tuesday's hearing, which will be at 9:30 a.m. in the Jung Hotel at New Orleans.

The railroad originally petitioned the Interstate Commerce Commission for permission to discontinue the trains, which run daily between Ocean Springs and New Orleans, Jan. 2, but the discontinuance was forestalled four months when the hearing was set for Tuesday. Railroad officials claimed that losses from operation of the trains last year amounted to $70,000.

Rudolph Vorbusch, of Waveland, president of the Gulf Coast Commuters Association, said discontinuance of the trains would have a disastrous economic effect on the coastal communities, since a large number of persons commuting to jobs at New Orleans and buying coastal products would be forced to move to an area where transportation facilities were better.

Public protest meetings were in December at Bay St. Louis and Gulfport. Citizens were urged to support opposition to discontinuance of the trains, by means of protests to state and national governing officials and by financial contributions.

Protests from public groups included ones from the city of New Orleans, Louisiana Public Service Commission, Mississippi Public Service Commission and Railroad Labor Executives Association.

State and national officials offered support in letters to local governing officials. Letters to Waveland Mayor Garfield Ladner said:

"I can certainly understand how you feel in this matter and agree that discontinuance of these trains would cause undue hardship to many people on the Gulf Coast. I will follow up on this in every way possible." —U.S. Sen. John Stennis (Miss.)

"I want to extend my cooperation to the communities on the Gulf Coast and you may depend upon me to do everything I can to help." —U.S. Sen. James O. Eastland (Miss.)

"I assure you that you may depend upon my cooperation." —U.S. Rep. F. Edward Hebert (La.)

Rotarians Hear Of Scholarships For Foreigners

Rotary scholarships for foreign students was the topic of Dr. Reginald C. Reinhold's speech at Wednesday night's Rotary dinner in Bay-Waveland Yacht Club.

Dr. Reinhold, director of the Institute of Latin American Studies of Mississippi Southern College, spoke with enthusiasm of the Rotary sponsored program at Mississippi Southern, whereby Latin American teachers of English are brought to the Hattiesburg campus for study which includes a survey of American culture and customs.

He explained that these teachers of English are the persons most often called upon to speak of English speaking countries in their own countries. Therefore, he said, if they can obtain a fair impression of the United States, they will convey that impression to a greater number of their fellow citizens than any other group of persons.

Alden Maufroy, in behalf of the Rotarians, presented a $50 savings bond to Miss Louise Crawford, retired librarian of City-County Memorial Library, in appreciation of her years of service since her founding of the library.

Tableau To Honor King and Queen of Carnival Ball

A glittering and spectacular tableau will be presented in honor of the royal couple who will reign over the 26th annual Carnival Ball to be presented by the Parents Club of St. Joseph's Academy the night of Feb. 6.

Speculation has begun, even at this early date, as to the identity of the couple who will be king and queen. Tradition demands that their identities remain a deep secret until they enter the ballroom.

Sale of tickets will begin Monday and those who plan to attend are reminded that only 485 seats will be available and all will be reserved. No tickets will be sold the night of the ball.

Committees are busy making final plans for the elaborate affair which has been regarded for one of the most important events of the year.

McCullough Gets Three-Year Contract

School Chief Is Renamed

Superintendent Joe D. McCullough was reappointed Jan. 8 by members of the board of trustees of Bay St. Louis Municipal Separate School System.

Board members praised Mr. McCullough for his role in the overwhelming passage of the $185,000 school bond issue Dec. 16 and noted that parent and student reaction to his administration during the last year indicated that he had been highly successful in furthering higher educational standards in the city public school system.

A three-year contract at an annual salary of $7,500 was granted to Mr. McCullough. For each teacher in the school system, the state pays $150 toward the annual salary of the superintendent. Therefore, the Bay St. Louis school system will pay only about $600 a year of the superintendent's salary.

Mr. McCullough will announce selection of principals in February, for board approval. Teacher selections will be made in March.

Plans for the three-part building expansion program, approved by voters in the Dec. 16 bond issue election, are near completion and will be shown to board members at a meeting at 7:30 p.m. Saturday in the office of the superintendent. Mr. McCullough said the architect, Charles Proffer, of the Gulfport firm of Kuykendall and Proffer, already was more than half finished with the plans.

The superintendent said he

and Mr. Proffer probably would take the plans before the State Educational Finance Commission at Jackson for discussion sometime next week.

Roy I. Dennis Dies in Home

Roy I. Dennis, 71, resident of Clermont Harbor for the last 10 years, died at 9 Wednesday morning in his home on Back Bay Rd.

The body will be taken from Fahey-Whitfield funeral home to First Baptist Church for services at 10 a.m. Friday. Burial will be in Garden of Memories Cemetery.

Mr. Dennis retired 10 years ago from his position with the Chicago branch of the Standard Oil Co. of New Jersey. He was active at Bay St. Louis as a member of the Masonic Lodge and the First Baptist Church.

Born Nov. 29, 1887, at Chicago, he was the son of Juliette Iverson and George E. Dennis. His wife is the former Em Foegele.

Surviving, besides Mrs. Dennis, is a brother George E. Dennis Jr. of California.

Members approved signing of the architect's contract and a standard application for approval of state school building funds and school building projects; a standard form which is a final step in obtaining state funds to aid in completing the project, whose cost is estimated at $240,000. The project includes:

A 16-classroom elementary school on the 29-acre Dunbar Ave. property owned by the school system.

A 4-classroom addition to the colored Valena C. Jones school.

A lunchroom addition to the Waveland school.

Board members went on record as approving installation of a traffic light at the Dunbar Ave. and US-90 intersection. They also asked Mr. McCullough to contact the state fire marshal in regard to having the school system checked for fire hazards by a representative of the state fire marshal.

The superintendent served three years as principal of Bay High School before being promoted to the office he has held the last year.

During the four years he has been with the city school system additions to Bay High School have included a modern home economics department, enlargement of the commercial department, a new industrial arts department, a teachers lounge, clinic and rest rooms in the main building and modernization of the library.

Tax Exemptions Being Accepted

County Tax Assessor Clairborne Ladner said today that homestead exemptions are being accepted now by his office. Deadline for property owners to file is April 1.

Residents of Bay St. Louis must file also in the tax collector's office in City Hall.

Mr. Ladner urged property owners to file exemptions early to avoid last minute rushes.

Hospital Board Talks Finances

The budget was the principal topic of discussion at Tuesday night's meeting of Hancock County Hospital board of trustees.

Treasurer T. T. Reboul Jr. said accounts payable of $1,973.61 and salaries of approximately $3,764 during December would make total costs for that month of about $5,738. Funds available, up to the end of January, figured on the basis of a present average daily intake of $161.55, added to the present balance were estimated at $5,978.

Payment of December bills from this estimated amount would leave the hospital an approximate balance of $240. Mr. Reboul said. "It seems to me we are going backward, since without county funds we would be 'in the red' now," he said.

Edgar Little, hospital administrator, said that money was due from Blue Cross Insurance Co. and that Blue Cross appropriations were expected to rise, since a survey had shown the per day cost of patient care to be higher than the amount now appropriated.

Board attorney Sam L. Favre Jr. said the hospital probably would receive funds from the county this month and next month.

Mr. Little also remarked that all hospitals tended to show a lower income during December and January.

A list of accounts receivable totaling $4,300, on which no effort to pay has been made in the last three months, was brought to the attention of the board by Mr. Little. He said bills were being sent out once more, giving 10 days' final notice before the bills would be turned over to a collection agency. The board approved his action.

Total accounts receivable amount to $10,300, Mr. Little said, since $6,000 is owed by persons who are making an effort to pay the bills.

Alcide C. Hoda, 57, County Native, Dies

Alcide C. Hoda, 57-year-old Hancock County native, died at 3 p.m. Tuesday in his home, Rt. 1, Pass Christian.

He was born April 18, 1901, at Kila and was a re-forester.

The body was taken from Riemann's funeral home at Gulfport to the residence where funeral services were this morning, with religious services at 10 a.m. in Rocky Hill Catholic Church. Father Celestine of Kila officiated and burial was in Sand Hill Cemetery at Fenton.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Viola Hoda; two brothers, Clarence and Placide Hoda, both of Lizana, and a sister, Mrs. Victorine Ladner of Rocky Hill.

12 Cage Teams Enter Bay High Tournament

23rd annual Bay High School invitational basketball tournament will get under way Wednesday in Bay High gymnasium.

This year's tournament is expected to be one of the best ever held here, with 12 top teams taking part in each division. These teams will be from six counties in Mississippi and one in Louisiana.

First round action Wednesday will find Harrison Central and Lumberton girls meeting at 7 p.m. This will be followed by a game between these schools.

Action at 8 will find Bay High girls meeting Savannah, to be followed by a clash between the boys team from Bay High and Savannah.

Thursday's action will begin at 6 p.m. with a contest between St. Joseph Academy and Perkins. This will be followed by a contest between Slidell and Perkins boys. Sellers vs. Pass Christian, girls and boys, will round out action Thursday.

Play will resume at noon Friday with four games slated for Friday afternoon and four Friday night. Night games Friday will begin at 6. Teams that will see action Friday against the winners of the two previous night's games are Ocean Springs, Carriere, Long Beach, Kila and St. Martin. Semi-finals are set for Saturday afternoon beginning at noon and finals will be Saturday night at 8 and 9.

St. Martin girls are expected to be the team to beat in the girls division, having played 19 games so far this season without a defeat. Lumberton, Carriere and Pass Christian are expected to give St. Martin plenty of competition.

In the boys division, it's hard to pick a favorite with so many good teams involved. Slidell, Sellers, Harrison Central and Kila appear to be the cream of the crop, but several other teams are capable of upsetting any of these four.

Trophies will be awarded to the winners and runners-up in each division, with players on these teams receiving individual awards immediately after the final game Saturday night. Defending champions are St. Martin girls and Harrison Central boys.

Admission to each session will be 25 cents for students and 50 cents for adults.

Boston's Heritage Resurrected

Within the shadow of Paul Revere's famous ride from the Old North Church to Concord in the cause of national freedom from oppressive government, American farmers from Maine to California in their 40th annual meeting became the first large national organization to consolidate a national position in strong support of states' rights and in opposition to the interfering practices of the U. S. Supreme Court.

For the first time in history, a powerful organization—the American Farm Bureau Federation—declared positively that the maintenance of strong, independent and responsible state and local government is imperative to the preservation of self-government and individual freedom.

As a matter of fact, the farmers of the nation did some interpreting of their own-to wit:

"The framers of our Constitution never intended that there should be vested in the Supreme Court of the United States power to legislate, power to distort, the plain language of the Constitution, or power to interfere with matters of purely state and local concern where the constitutional privileges and immunities of citizens are in no way abridged."

The Farm Bureau is a private organization of farm people. It is the largest such organization in the world, seconded in size by the National Grange which is not organized in Mississippi. The Mississippi Farm Bureau Federation with a membership of 52,500 farm families is a part of the American Farm Bureau and seated five voting delegates in Boston's Symphony Hall as this momentous action came about Dec. 11. Farm Bureau delegates maintained:

"We are seriously concerned over the present tendency of the Supreme Court to legislate, the acquiescence of the executive branch in such decisions, and the tendency of Congress to yield certain of its legislative powers to the Supreme Court. These attitudes destroy the system of checks and balances which is a fundamental concept of the Constitution."

"We therefore recommend:

"(1) That Congress prescribe proper limitations upon the appellate jurisdiction of the Supreme Court.

"(2) That Congress utilize its powers to enact either corrective or conforming legislation in those fields where the Supreme Court has invaded the legislative area."

On the subject of states' rights, the farm group recommended that:

"(1) Legislation be enacted to establish the principle that state law continues to be valid and enforceable in state courts unless there is a direct and positive conflict between an expressed provision of federal law and state law so that the two provisions cannot be reconciled or consistently stand together.

"(2) There is no infringement by one branch of the federal government upon the constitutional prerogatives of the other branches.

"(3) A study be made of the entire federal grant-in-aid system to ascertain its impact on the principle of states' rights and responsibilities."

In summary, the Farm Bureau said: "The maintenance of strong, independent and responsible state and local government is imperative to the preservation of self-government and individual freedom."

This is a resounding hoofbeat of hope that there may yet be another national enlistment of freedom seeking people, united and militant, who will safeguard our individual and state freedoms.

Many Agencies Use Old Cards

In response to an editorial request in the Echo Jan. 1 as to whether there were organizations or missions which would use Christmas cards, an anonymous reader submitted a list of places where they would be welcome.

Resurrection Catholic Mission, Box 74, Mountain Creek, Ala.

St. Mary's Mission House, Society of the Divine Word, Tarrytown, N. Y.

St. Mary's Servite Priory, St. Anne's Road, London N 15, England.

Mr. Carmel Convent, 21 Palace Rd., Bangalore 1, India.

And another reader, Mrs. Eleanor Everett of Bay St. Louis, advises that the Missionary Servants of Holy Eucharist, 3453 Magazine St., New Orleans, would like to have such cards.

Also interested in obtaining them is Dot Davis, Box 352, Bogalusa, La., who makes cards to send to shut-ins, the sick and old persons. She cuts out designs and applies them to plain cards or government postal cards.

SAY AND DONE
A sage philosopher, his name escapes me, said: "When all is said and done, more things are said than done." How true.

Let's, therefore, say, an earnest prayer that in 1959, this old, wise saying will continue to hold true. Because if all the things the "liberal" U. S. senators and representatives say they are going to bludgeon through the first session of the 86th Congress, are done, 1959 will be recorded in history as the year when the United States of America took leave of its senses — completely.

These "liberals" threaten that they will put the federal government further into the development of electric energy — have Uncle Sam build more and more dams; they promise a public housing on a grandiose scale; they assure us that there will be billions of dollars of federal aid to education; they will see to it that Social Security pensions are increased and extended to more pensioners, etc., etc.

Undoubtedly, one of the worst, or perhaps even the worst thing, they say they are going to do is to knock out of the Taft-Hartley Act that clause which permits the individual states to legislate on "right-to-work" laws. That would indeed be a disaster for the workers of this nation (and that's nearly all of us), if they succeed in doing what they say.

Yes, indeed, let's pray that in 1959, "when all is said and done, more things will have been said than done."

My Favorite Prayer

By SEN. FRANCIS CASE (R-SD)

Lord, make me an instrument of Thy peace. Where there is hate, may I bring love; where there is error, Truth; where there is doubt, Faith; where despair, hope; where darkness, Light.

Lord, grant that I may seek rather to comfort — than to be comforted; to understand — than to be understood; to love — than to be loved; to learn that by giving, one receives; that by forgiving, one is forgiven; that by forgetting self, one finds Eternal Life. (St. Francis of Assisi, 1182-1226)

10 Deer Killed Within County

Unofficial reports show a kill of 10 during the Hancock County deer season Nov. 20-30, 1958, and Dec. 26, 1958-Jan. 5, 1959, State Game Warden Randolph Bourgeois said.

An incomplete report from the State Game and Fish Commission shows a statewide kill of 2,406 deer.

Bolivar County led all other open counties with 332 legal deer, 53 more than last year's total, Issaquena County ran second with 200, Lafayette third with 167,

Pfc. Leroy Asher Suffers Serious Burns in Germany

A Bay St. Louis soldier stationed in Germany will remember the recent holiday season as a gloomy one.

U. S. Army Pfc. Leroy Asher, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Asher of Rt. 1, Box 627, Bay St. Louis, was critically burned in an explosion Nov. 4. The blowup occurred while he was working on the electric field pump of an M59 personnel carrier at Gier-

"Due to good management, restocking programs and protection by the Game and Fish Commission, Mississippi's deer herds are continuing to increase each year and furnish more hunters the opportunity to bag a deer. With continued cooperation of landowners, deer camp operators and individual sportsmen, the state's deer population, now estimated at 80,000, should increase at an even more rapid rate," the report said.

hausen, near his base at Frankfurt.

Medical officials at 97th U. S. Army General Hospital at Frankfurt found that Pfc. Asher's burns were so severe that extensive skin grafting was necessary.

The young soldier, who entered the service Feb. 3, 1957, spent several days after the accident in a state of shock and suffering severe pain. Doctors grafted wide strips of skin from his chest and back onto his legs in a series of slow, painful operations.

The entire holiday season, including his 24th birthday, Dec. 5, was spent by Pfc. Asher alternating between four hours on his back and two on his stomach.

"The nurses have been wonderful," he said, "and I had a fine dinner on Christmas Day, but I've been mighty blue, missing Mom and Dad, hurting all the time and no one to talk to."

The youth has a twin brother, Leo, also stationed in Germany. He attended Lakeshore School and worked with his father at Asher's Wrecking Yard before entering service.

Frozen Cranberries

Have you often wished fresh cranberries were on the market year-round so they would be available for salads, sauces, relishes and such.

This may be an answer for you: Cranberries may be kept successfully for 12 months if frozen.

The easiest way is simply to put fresh berries in freezer bags or other containers without sweetening, then seal and freeze.

Choose firm berries with glossy skins. Remove any stems and sort out soft berries. Wash and drain before packaging.

Berries frozen without sugar are convenient to use in any recipe. Cranberries are easy to chop or grind while still frozen, as they do not stick together.

Life of Appliances

"I've been using my refrigerator for 10 years. How much longer can I expect it to give good service?"

Homemakers often are asking themselves this and similar questions. They need to know the answer to plan ahead on buying and replacing appliances.

Household economists of the U. S. Department of Agriculture have made some life expectancy estimates on appliances. They based them on reports by families on how long they used various appliances.

Persons having claims against said estate to have same probated and registered by the Clerk of said Court within six months from this date, and failure to so probate and register same in six months will bar the claim.

Old Felt Is Used

Don't throw that old felt hat away.

Instead, try brushing it with a stiff brush or very fine sandpaper. Then sponge it with dry cleaning fluid. Isn't it looking better?

Now you can press, re-block or remodel it. Or use it in making bedroom slippers, children's headwear, handbags, belts, mittens or other useful and decorative articles.

Steaming makes felt easy to mold to the size and shape you want. To press, cover felt with a press cloth and use a hot iron. Handle felt gently when damp; it is pressed together, not woven and is easily broken or pulled apart.

Two Priests Will Conduct Mission Here

A two-week mission will begin Sunday at Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church. Two priests of the Redemptorist Order, the Rev. Maurice Kennedy and the Rev. Joseph Fister, will preach the mission.

The first week of the mission, Jan. 18 to 25, will be for women and the second week, Jan. 25 to Feb. 1, will be for men. Masses will be offered each morning during the mission at 6, 6:40 and 7:30. A short instruction will be given daily between the 6 and 6:40 a.m. masses.

Sermons will be preached at 7:30 each night, the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Martin Moloney, pastor of the church, said.

"Father Kennedy and Father Fister are well known throughout the south for their eloquent preaching and their keen understanding of people," Msgr. Moloney said.

"All Catholics are expected to attend the mission and all non-Catholics are cordially invited to hear the mission sermons," he added.

Short Cut Methods

There are a number of quick ways to do routine jobs - many you've discovered in your own kitchen. But be open-minded, experiment and investigate new methods.

For example, use a plastic bag and rolling pin to make bread, cookies or cracker crumbs. Add salt to cooking water after it begins to boil. Unsalted water boils sooner.

Add a little fat or oil to the water in which you cook spaghetti or macaroni. This keeps it from boiling over.

Income Tax

County farmers have been making changes to deal with the new federal income tax laws. In most cases, the new laws will be a help. Depreciation of machinery is one of the new items. For new or used machinery, property which was purchased after Jan. 1, 1958, the new law allows a first-year depreciation of 20 per cent. This is in addition to the depreciation on the old law.

For example—Suppose a farmer bought a new tractor for $2,000. He had an expected life of 10 years. You could take a depreciation of 20 per cent of $400. Then from the $1,600, less salvage value of $200, take 10 per cent of $1,400 and add this to the $400 and total depreciation allowed is $1,800. Under the old "straight line" method of past years, your allowable deduction would have been only $180.

Remember, though, the new law will make the deduction in coming years, so there will be much difference in the long run. It could help a farmer in a year of high farm income.

The second change is in carrying losses. You now can carry back three years in lieu of two to offset past losses not fully offset in the three years still can be carried forward.

This change may help family corporations. Corporations with less than 10 shareholders and only one class of stock may choose to be taxed as individuals. Then each shareholder reports his share of the corporation's taxable income, eliminating double taxation—first on the corporate earnings and again on dividends. Farmers making this choice to do so during the first year of the tax year.

Control

January is an ideal month to pasture for dock control. Farmer days of the month with one pound of amine will kill all dock growing.

All grain areas that have growing in them can also be sprayed for dock control. Use no vetch, wild winter crimson clover or red clover growing with the small grain. 2,4-D also can be used.

Dairying

"Make dairy cows pay, the record way. Milk the best and sell the rest." This is good advice for a dairyman who expects to make a profit from his dairy herd.

Feeding low producing cows is a waste of feeds and a waste of labor. Knowing which cow is the high producer and which is not paying her way calls for accurate records. If you are not now keeping records on individual cow production, why not make plans to begin right away?

Care of Livestock

Here are some tips on good winter care of livestock in Hancock County:

1 - Use small grains, ryegrass, crimson clover, fescue and other winter grazing crops for beef cattle, sheep and hogs.
2 - Where such grazing is not available, see that the beef breeding herd has enough cheap roughage and grain and cottonseed meal to prevent loss of weight.

3 - Cull and sell unprofitable cows.

4 - Castrate bull calves with a knife early and dehorn all calves to be sold in feeder sales.

5 - Vaccinate pigs for hog cholera and other diseases.

6 - Treat pigs for worms.

7 - Feed pigs for spring market.

8 - Put ewes close to lambing in a maternity pasture.

9 - Make sure lambs nurse immediately after birth.

10 - Treat navel cords of lambs with iodine at birth.

11 - Dock and castrate all lambs before they are 15 days old.

12 - Start creep feeding lambs as soon as possible.

13 - See that all classes of livestock have shelter and bedding and extra bedding during very cold weather.

Other Winter Jobs

Make plans. Put them in writing. Refer to the plans before making any decisions.

Plan your cotton acreage. If you do not plan to plant all of your allotted acreage, release it to the local ASC committee for re-distribution in the county to other farmers who might want extra cotton acres.

Study carefully the advantages and disadvantages of the two cotton plans. Then decide which is for you.

If you have any extra time you can spend repairing fences, barns and barn roofs, and building new fences.

Winter Care of Cows

Feed good quality roughages. Feed grain in proportion to milk production.

Do a good job of milking - fast, complete and regularly. Check calves for internal parasites.

Make sure that dairy animals have plenty of fresh, clean water.

Mardi Gras Theme Is 'Historic Events'

Mardi Gras will be celebrated here Feb. 10 with a theme of "Historic Events," M. L. Hill, president of Bay Central PTA, sponsoring organization, said.

A king and queen, chosen from the eighth grade by students at Bay High School, will be featured in the parade, beginning at 2 p.m., and in the celebration later in Bay High School gymnasium.

Floats will be entered in the parade by school groups and local organizations and businesses. Judging of the floats and crowning of the royal couple will be in the gymnasium, Mr. Hill said.

The court will be entertained by students at Dot Russell's Dancing Studio. Individual costumes also will be judged.

Organizations and business establishments entering floats are asked to check with Mrs. Claiborne Ladner at HO 7-4462.

Garden Club Views Slides Of Prize Winning Camellias

"Little Mirador," the home of Mrs. Ruth Luderbach, at 207 St. Charles St., was the scene of the January meeting of Bay-Waveland Garden Club Jan. 8.

John Geiser, a member of the Ozone Camellia Club at Slidell and an accredited judge of the American Camellia Society, showed "colored slides of prize winning specimens. Mr. Geiser, who is an outstanding amateur photographer, made the transparencies at various shows he has attended.

"Timely Tips on Gardening for January" was the subject of a brief talk by Mrs. E. Mogabgab. She also displayed an arrangement of camellias.

Mrs. Ben F. Hille Sr., chairman of the Camellia Show, announced the show will be in the Knights of Columbus Hall on Main St. Feb. 14-15. She urged members to enter exhibits and arrangements in the show, an annual event.

Mrs. Burleigh Is Named Head Of Garden Club

Mrs. Havard Burleigh was elected president of the Blue Jeans Garden Club at the Christmas party and meeting in the home of Mrs. Al Landry at Clermont Harbor.

Elected to serve with Mrs. Burleigh were Mrs. Ruth Miller, vice president; Mrs. Rae Cope, secretary and Mrs. O. Moran, treasurer.

A gaily decorated Christmas tree was placed before the picture window of the home. Gifts were placed beneath the tree for exchange by members during the social hour. Focal point of the spacious living room was the mantel which was decorated with an elaborate arrangement of holly, cedar and pine cones. Tall red candles in antique holders were on either side of the foliage.

Annual awards were presented to members who won the most prizes during the year. They were: Mrs. Burleigh, Mrs. V. Simms and Mrs. B. Petersen, a tie for the horticulture award; Mrs. I. Jourdan and Mrs. Cope, a tie for best potted plants; Mrs. J. Bordages, best miniature, and Mrs. J. P. Rousseau, best in wild, dried and cultivated specimen.

A festive holiday cloth covered the dining room table which was centered with an arrangement of glittering ornaments and tall red candles in silver holders.

Mrs. Rousseau and Mrs. C. E. Becker poured coffee and tea from silver services and silver trays held a tempting array of holiday refreshments.

Others attending were Mesdames L. Duffelhan, Opelousas, La.; N. Goebel, New Orleans; R. O. Flick, Roy Dennis, F. O. McCoy, E. Lander, O. Rannik, Harvey Ming, J. Saleeby and I. Richmond.

Mrs. Landry was assisted in serving by her mother, Mrs. m. brink, and her sisters, Mrs. T. Omott and Mrs. F. Chase of New Orleans.

Pass Christian Rotary Hears Mrs. Joe Allen

Mrs. Joe Allen of Pass Christian was guest speaker at the Jan. 6 meeting of Pass Christian Rotary Club in Annie's Restaurant. Mrs. Allen is known in Bay St. Louis as the granddaughter of the late C. C. Hart, one of the founders of this city.

Her talk concerned phases of nationwide moves.

BALLERINA—Miss Donna Wiggins, 15-year-old student of the Dot Russell Dance Studio, danced at the kickoff program of the Biloxi March of Dimes campaign Jan. 4 afternoon in the Buena Vista Hotel. Donna, a freshman at Bay High School, has studied three years at the Russell Studio. Theme of the program, "Paris in the Springtime," was carried out with a display of Paris fashion designs.

Luncheon Set At Yacht Club

Woman's Auxiliary of Bay-Waveland Yacht Club will entertain members and their guests at noon Wednesday.

Mrs. Charles Lozano, chairman of the affair, emphasized that those planning to attend must make reservations no later than Tuesday. She explained that no reservations will be accepted after that date.

Hostesses assisting Mrs. Lozano are Mesdames Walter Hava, Herbert Rattenberg, Roy Dennis, K. W. Pepperdene, W. Ray Gordon and Maybelle Smith.

Price of the luncheon is $1.50.

At a meeting of the auxiliary Jan. 7, plans were discussed for furnishing new draperies for the club rooms. Members expressed hope of having the drapes made before the GYA regatta in May.

Mrs. W. R. Sattler, vice president, presided in the absence of Mrs. A. O. Hoefeld.

A report was given by the treasurer, Mrs. K. W. Pepperdene, on the Christmas party given for children of members. She said that a number of gifts which were not given to the young guests that afternoon went to needy children of the community.

For a number of years, the auxiliary has sponsored a spring style show with the exception of last year. Tentative arrangements are being made for the presentation of the show this year.

Members were reminded of the luncheon the second Sunday of each month and of the entertainment each Friday evening in the club.

COTTON IS BRINGING 11 CENTS

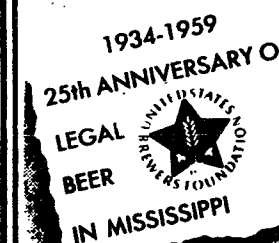

This was the big news back in January, 1934 when immediate delivery, middling cotton, sold at new top price for the season of 11 cents a pound! Mississippi has come a long way since then. Farm income, pay-rolls, school facilities, roads and every economic indicator is up; showing better living for all.

The legally-regulated beer industry is an important part of Mississippi's prosperity. Employing over 16,000, the state's nearly 5,000 retailers and 57 wholesalers have an investment of over $28 million in trucks, buildings, and other equipment.

The legal beer industry is a big market for a wide variety of farm produce, too.

Last year, Mississippi taxes on beer, the beverage of moderation, totaled about $4 million; nearly one-fourth the sum needed to retain Homestead Exemption, and important funds for Old Age pensions, school and rural road programs, as well as other necessary government functions.
